Biography

Maria Guevara graduated in May 2008 with a Doctor of Pharmacy degree from the University of Florida, College of Pharmacy. She is a recipient of the Eli Lilly Award, an award which is presented to a graduating student in the UF College of Pharmacy for ethics, scholarship and leadership. She completed a residency in pain and palliative care at Lakeland Regional Medical Center in July 2009. During her residency year, she gave numerous lectures on pain management to pharmacy students, pharmacists, and medical staff.

Maria is currently a pain and palliative care pharmacy specialist at Lakeland Regional Medical Center, where she is also part of the pain management taskforce. She remains involved with her alma mater, holding a faculty position as a clinical assistant professor at the University of Florida. She is actively involved in the promotion of pain management pharmacy through her professional involvement on the board of directors for the Florida Pain Initiative as well as a member of the American Society of Health System Pharmacists, American Pain Society, and American Pharmacists Association.
