Biography

Valerie Ventura received her Master of Science in Nursing with a specialization in Education from Walden University. She received her Pain Management certification from the American Nursing Credentialing Center in 2007. She recently took a position as corporate education coordinator at Orlando Health, where she plans, develops, coordinates and evaluates staff development to maintain and increase staff knowledge.

Ms. Ventura has over 18 years experience as a clinical nurse and educator in acute care. She has had a strong interest in pain management throughout her career, and has done much to promote it both by her education programs to staff and by acting as a role model clinically. She is a member of the National Nursing Staff Development Organization, the Central Florida Health Educators, and the American Society for Pain Management Nursing.
